- I was born in 1978 in Evansville, Indiana. I grew up in a Christian home and was saved at the age of five. My parents were full-time missionaries with Child Evangelism Fellowship.
- Through all the various CEF ministries that I was taken to as a child, I developed a burden to go into full-time Christian service. That desire led me to Calvary Bible College, where I received a one year Bible Certificate.
- I immediately went off then to CEF's Children's Ministries Institute where I acquired a Master Teacher certificate and an adoring wife. Becky and I were married eight months later, with the goal to enter full-time ministry with CEF.
- After returning to Calvary to receive my Bachelor's degree in Christian Ministry with an emphasis in Child Evangelism, we served two more years with CEF and left the ministry in the summer after our second of three children was born.
- I began teaching at the Brookes Bible Institute in the summer of 2007 and am now teaching full-time at Brookes.
- My wife and I are still active in ministry together at Hope Bible Church in O'Fallon, Missouri. We head up (along with another couple) a young marrieds' group at our church. We also serve together in the AWANA club that is held at our church. I lead singing and games; Becky leads the third and fourth grade girl's handbook time.
- I also lead an adult Sunday School class that is currently studying through the Old Testament book-by-book. We are currently in 1 Samuel.
- I enjoy reading, watching sci-fi movies, as well as spending time with my family where we visit historical sites in St. Louis as well as when we travel.
